

LIFE ON BOARD

THINGS YOU'LL NEED ABOARD

- A towel for sunbathing and taking ashore.
- A sweater for evenings.
- Washing powder or travel wash is useful.
- Suntan lotion or cream. (not suntan oil to avoid slipping on / or staining the deck)
- Mosquito repellent. (you can buy this when you arrive, Turkish repellent is very effective against Turkish mosquitoes)
- A pair of cheap canvas or plastic shoes you don't mind getting wet for use on the windsurf or on rocks.
- A small amount of Turkish Lira for entrance to historical sights.
- Cigarettes, if you are a smoker, they are sometimes hard to find at sea. (Smoking is not allowed in the cabins)
- Adequate insurance to cover watersports.
- Gratuity for the crew (at your own discretion)
- Snorkelling equipment for keen snorkellers, there are several sets onboard, but you may have to wait your turn.
- A travel adapter for any of your electrical appliances, the Turkish system is two round pins.

You can obtain cash from your credit cards at cash dispensers or banks, but cards cannot be used in all places.

Due to unforeseen circumstances, bad weather conditions or for your own safety, the planned itinerary may have to be changed at short notice. The Captain's decision is final in all matters.
